

Cycle Training UK will be running Professional Development Modules for National Standards instructors during the first quarter of 2010.

The courses will take place w/c 01/02/10 at our training centre in London as follows:

Special Educational Needs (SEN)

This interactive module explores the different categories of SEN
Instructors will develop teaching guidelines to help people with SEN enjoy riding a bike
Instructors will explore how NS outcomes can be adapted for people with SEN

Date: Monday 1 Feb 2010 at 9.30-12.30

Cost: £80 per person

Maximising Learning

This interactive refresher module will enable experienced instructors to streamline their teaching and help their trainees achieve Bikeability outcomes more quickly and efficiently.

Date: 1 Feb 2010 at 13.30-15.30

Cost: £80 per person

Mentor Training Day

Cycle Training schemes should have mentors in place to help with instructor's professional development

This one day course covers instructor induction, support and appraisal.

Date: Tuesday 2 February 2010 at 10.00-16.00pm

Cost: £120 per person

Learning Through Games

Teaching bike control (Level 1) can be enhanced through using a variety of games.

Instructors can share ideas and learn some new games in a fun practical session.

Date: Wednesday 3 Feb 2010 at 9.30-12.30

Cost: £80 per person

To book on to any of the above please email maresha@cycletraining.co.uk